

Ifeoma Okoruen (MSc.HRM, mCIPM, sHRBP) is the Head of Human Resource at Mouka Limited, bringing over 20 years of experience in strategic HR management across various sectors. She has successfully managed substantial HR budgets, led award-winning HR teams, and implemented transformative HR initiatives that align with business goals. Ifeoma is dedicated to enhancing employee experience through diversity, equity, inclusion, and wellbeing programs, and has experience in mergers and acquisitions.

As a transformation agent, she is passionate about leadership and career development, as such she makes herself available to mentor young professionals in HR and other fields of Work. She is a Licensed HR practitioner, member of the Chartered institute of Personnel Management (MCIPM), Society of Human Resources Managers, USA and serves in an advisory capacity on the Board of Ripple Heights Foundation UK. In addition, she is also passionate about Entrepreneurship, which is evident in her probono advisory services to Entrepreneurs on their Products and Services from ideation through to execution.

Additionally, she mentors young professionals and supports entrepreneurship and youth advocacy in her spare time.